

China

1. Natural disasters have torn apart our fields, we need only a little wheat during our recovery. y: Your favor will not be forgotten. n: Ah another bitter year indeed.

South Africa

1. Our maize is running in short supply and it would be rough to convince families to skip out on their pap. Could you spare some wheat while we up our production? y: Thank you! Let us know if you want some citrus. n : It's fine, I'm sure we'll find a way to get by.

North Africa

1. Our canals have all filled from awful storms. There's no water left to grow any food. Please I don't know that we'll make it. y: You are our first step to recovery. n: Selfish to another's end, I should've expected as much.

East Africa

1. The largest producers of maize have been hit by a terrible parasite in their fields. We need to make sure we can cover while they eradicate it. y: Thanks, don't be afraid to bug us in the future if you need help. n: Alright, we won't bug you again.

West Africa

1. Our tubers aren't doing terrific, we need some wheat while we relocate our fields. y: Thank you, I know this was spudden. n: Ah, I fear we may end up tatering on the edge of disaster.

West Europe

1. Bonjour mon ami, we seem to have run into a little trouble in our fields zis year. A little help would be wonderful. y: My little cabbage, I knew I could count on you. n: Hmmph, no one knows where the shoe pinches except for he who wears it.

Pacific Islands

1. We need help, a tsunami has destroyed our countries. We have no resources our way to produce resources. Please anything would help. y: Thank you, I hope that it's enough. n: Thank you for your time since it seems we are not worth yours.

Middle East

1. We're currently in the middle of renovating our irrigation system so we lose less water to leakage. Could you help cover our food production for the time being? y: Thank you! n: It's fine I'm sure we'll be fine.

Brazil

1. Good news, we've had record coffee bean production! Bad news, we haven't had much luck with corn. Could you give us a little help? y: Thank you! f: Ah well, maybe next time.

Central America

1. We've had severe landslides this past month that have ruined our sugar fields. We need some extra food while we clean up the damage. y: You're too sweet, thank you. n: Not so sweet in the end.

Russia

East Europe

India red